CAPITALISM

By Ave, Hamza, and Ella

WHAT IS CAPITALISM?????

- CAPITALISM IS AN ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL SYSTEM IN WHICH A COUNTRY'S TRADE AND INDUSTRY ARE CONTROLLED BY PRIVATE OWNERS FOR PROFIT, RATHER THAN BY THE STATE
- CAPITALISM IS A FORM OF GOVERNMENT THAT IS CHARACTERISED BY A PRIVATE CORPORATION OWNERSHIP OF DIFFERENT GOODS. AS WELL AS DETERMINING THE PRICES OF GOOD BY THE PRODUCERS, THEY ALSO DETERMINE THE AMOUNT OF GOODS BY THEIR COMPETITION.

CAPITALIST COUNTRIES:

- The United States
- Canada
- Australia

CAPITALISM ECONOMIC SYSTEM

- Capitalism is an economic system characterized by the private ownership of property, capital accumulation, competitive markets, wage labor and profit
- It ranges from laissez-faire capitalism to state capitalism
 - Under laissez-faire capitalism, there is no government interference or intervention in private markets
 - market participants are free to conduct business transactions as they choose
 - Pure laissez-faire capitalism is rare
 - the government regulates how business can be conducted and how some resources are allocated
 - Countries that practice state capitalism are said to have a mixed economy
- Capitalism grew out of mercantilism, which was a system of trade and profit practiced between the 16th and 18th centuries by England and several other European nations
- Much of the exploration and conquest of the Western Hemisphere and Asia was the result of the mercantilists' drive for profit
- Two mercantilist ventures that played major roles in the spread of trade were the British East India Company and the Dutch East India Company¹
- The opposite of capitalism is communism. Under communism, all property is owned and controlled by the state. Communism has generally been discredited as a viable economic system.

- What's the difference between capitalism and communism?

CAPITALISM MAKES CENTS.

- I have a joke about capitalism...

HEAR IT FOR JUST 3 EASY PAYMENTS OF $4.99.

- Capitalism is dancing at the edge of the abyss.

SOCIALISM, OF COURSE, IS ONE STEP AHEAD OF THEM.

- What's the difference between true communism and unhindered capitalism.

ONE SPIES ON THE PEOPLE, REMOVES PRIVACY FOR THE SAKE OF THE MASSES, AND PROPS UP AN ESTABLISHMENT THAT SERVES ONLY THE LUCKY FEW.

AND THE OTHER FORTUNATELY NEVER CAUGHT ON IN AMERICA.

- What's the difference between Communism and Capitalism?

IN COMMUNISM THE GOVERNMENT OWNS AND RUNS AND COLLECTS EVERYTHING.

IN CAPITALISM YOU OWN AND RUN THINGS AND THE GOVERNMENT COLLECTS IT FOR YOU

- If I had a dollar for everything wrong with capitalism...

... THEN I PROBABLY WOULDN'T BE COMPLAINING ABOUT CAPITALISM.

"Today we also have to say "thou shalt not" to an economy of exclusion and inequality. Such an economy kills. . .

I beg the Lord to grant us more politicians who are genuinely disturbed by the state of society, the people, the lives of the poor!"

PROS OF CAPITALISM

- Capitalism provides consumers with choices.
- There is a greater efficiency to the economics
- Self-regulation occurs naturally in the capitalistic approach.
- Supply and demand determine the fair prices of everything.
- There are ways to continue being compassionate in a true capitalistic society
- The capitalist approach provides a natural bridge to equality
- It embraces the idea that borders can help the economy.
- Capitalism attempts to limit government spending
- Economic growth occurs with capitalism.
- You can turn your talents or skills into profits.
- Capitalism allows the marketplace to set prices instead of the government.

LESS GREAT STUFF ABOUT CAPITALISM ©

- Monopoly power. Private ownership of capital enables firms to gain monopoly power in product and labour markets
- Monopsony power
- Social benefit ignored
- Inherited wealth and wealth inequality
- Inequality creates social division
- Diminishing marginal utility of wealth
- Unstable economy

History of capitalism

In north western-europe,
capitalism is thought to of first came into existence.

The time era of that was somewhere around the mid to late sixteenth and the seventeenth centuries.
Adam smith was one of the several people in which helped to found capitalism as a formal or proper form of government.

He was also the only one that i could find information on.

Capitalism was also present during the late european middle ages, although wasn't used as a formal government system yet.

The late european middle ages was a time period known as the late medieval times. Which was from 1250-1500.

There on the use of capitalism slowly grew.. And became one of the most used economic systems.

Capitalist economy Compared to other economies / governments

In a capitalist government they aim to have privately run business and corporations. Along with the opportunity to be able to choose what the price is for specific goods or services.

While In a communist government they aim to have the government to own everything and there be know private property as well as owning and running the business and shops.

In a fascist government, the people are led by a singular individual known as a dictator, who has control over anyone else in the country(well kinda control i guess i don't know).

In a socialist government the aim to have a government were the production and the distribution of items or services will be shared by the community as a whole.
